

Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions (“T&C”) regulate the contractual relationship between ETH juniors, Rämistrasse 101, ETH-Zentrum, CH-8092 Zurich (“Organizer”) and your company (“Company”) with respect to the registration and participation of your Company in the event Campus Interview (“Event”) as well as the communication with potential Interviewees (“Interviewees”) registered for the Event. The Event is organized by the Organizer under these T&C. Organizer and Company are referred herein from time to time as a “Party” and jointly as the “Parties”.

1. Description of the Event

Campus Interview is a one-day interview event for companies to meet students, graduates and Ph.D. candidates primarily from Swiss universities. The Organizer provides a web platform for participants to register for the Event and manages other aspects of the Event organization.

2. Location and duration of the Event

In 2025, the Event will take place on November 7th at the Hotel Mövenpick, Zürich Airport, Walter, Mittelholzstrasse 8, CH-8152 Glattbrugg from 7:20 to 18:00. The details regarding the location, arrival, catering, and other logistic details will be provided by the Organizer to the Company upon registration.

3. Registration for the Event

The Company has to register for the Event online via www.campusinterview.ch (“Event Portal”). If the Company has made a reservation via email, phone call or personally, the Company is still obliged to register for the Event on the Event Portal. By registering for the Event on the Event Portal, the Company accepts these T&C. The participation of the Company at the Event as well as these T&C become binding between the parties upon a confirmation of Company’s registration by the Organizer. The confirmation will be communicated both in the status of the registration on the Event Portal and via email to the registered contact.

4. Admission

Any company is entitled to register for the Event. The Organizer reserves the right to decide which registrations will be confirmed.

The Company shall register the personnel of the Company attending the Event during the registration process. Additional participants and/or replacement shall be communicated to the Organizer via Email or via the Event Portal and confirmed by the Organizer via email. It is the responsibility of the company to actively seek and match with suitable candidates. Please note that any candidate matching conducted after the specified matching deadline is not possible.

5. Room allocation and Timetables

The Company acknowledges and agrees that all rights with regard to the room allocation and timetables are reserved by the Organizer. The Organizer will provide the room allocation and timetables at latest on the day before the Event. In urgent cases (e.g. in case of last-minute interview cancellations), the Organizer may adjust the room allocation and timetables. In such cases, the Organizer commits to keep the effort on the side of the Company connected to such changes as least as possible.

6. Prices

By registering for the Event, the Company agrees to the prices provided on the Event Portal during the registration process. The standard price of participation includes the right to conduct interviews in the appointed rooms and catering of lunch for the Company's representatives. The Company may book additional services subject to a written confirmation by the Organizer. The price for additional services will be agreed between Parties. All prices are excl. VAT.

7. Conditions of payment

The Company will pay the invoices within thirty (30) days upon receipt, but in any instance at latest seven (7) days before the date of the Event. The Company is obliged to reference the invoice number in the transactions. All transactions shall be exempted from charges and be in CHF.

In case the Company fails to pay all applicable invoices at latest 7 days before the event, the Organizer reserves the right to cancel the participation of the Company without notice and without a refund of prepaid amounts.

8. Cancellation of the participation

Cancellation by the Company. The Company is entitled to cancel its participation in the Event at latest thirty (30) days before the Event. In case the participation is cancelled more than seventy (70) days before the Event, a processing fee of 200 CHF (excl. VAT) will be charged. If the cancellation takes place between sixty-nine (69) and thirty (30) days before the event, a processing fee of 500 CHF (excl. VAT) will be charged. The remaining prepaid amounts (if any) will be reimbursed. In case of any cancellation less than thirty (30) days before the Event, (1) the Company has to pay the full participation fee including all additional services, (2) the Company is not entitled to object to the use of its name in any printed materials produced by the Organizer for the Event.

Cancellation by the Organizer. The Organizer is entitled to cancel the participation of the Company in the Event without a prior notice in the following cases:

- The Company breaches these T&C and fails to mitigate the breach with no remaining effect within a reasonable time communicated by the Organizer.
- The Company fails to pay the applicable fees for the booked services on time under these T&C.
- The Company files bankruptcy proceedings on its assets or the Company is in liquidation.

9. Responsibility, insurance, safety

The Company acknowledges and agrees that it will adhere to the Rules of Conduct for the Event provided by the Organizer to the Company in writing or digitally through the Event Portal. The Company is liable to the full cost of any verifiable damages arising from a violation of the Rules of Conduct and from any damages of property and assets at the Event. The costs of such damages may be directly invoiced by the Organizer to the Company. The Company is responsible for obtaining an adequate insurance coverage.

The liability of each Party arising from death, personal injury, willful misconduct and gross negligence shall be unlimited.

The liability of each of the Parties for any indirect damages including but not limited to the loss of profit are excluded.

For any other cases, the total accumulated liability of each Party shall not exceed the total amount of the participation fees paid by the Company to the Organizer under these T&C.

10. Changes, force majeure

In case the Organizer has to cancel the Event before the date of the Event due to a force majeure, official orders or other compelling circumstances (including but not limited to any restrictions due to coronavirus), the Organizer is entitled to charge the Company for services already rendered to the Company. The rest of the prepaid amount (if any) will be refunded. The Organizer is entitled to carry out the Event online, in case any official order or other compelling circumstances (including but not limited to any restrictions due to coronavirus) will prohibit the onsite form of the Event. The Organizer will inform timely if any such change will be required and will provide all required details.

In case the Organizer has to change the date of the Event, the Company will be given a choice to either consent to the new date of the Event or receive a full refund, subject to subtraction of the services already rendered to the Company and a support contribution of 500 CHF (excl. VAT). The Company has to communicate its decision within one week from the notification. In case no notification will be received by the Organizer, it will be assumed that the Company consents to the new date. If the Organizer has to shorten or cancel an already started Event due to force majeure or political events, the Company is not entitled to a refund of the participation fee.

The Organizer reserves the right to change the location of the Event due to unforeseen reasons to another location where it is possible to conduct the Event under similar circumstances.

11. Advertisement, taking pictures, surveys

Advertising at the Event is only permitted within the space allocated to the Company. The use of devices and equipment that increase the visual or acoustic impact of the advertisements requires a written permission by the Organizer. Advertising of any political nature is not permitted.

The Organizer is entitled to take pictures, drawings or video recordings and to use these for advertising purposes and to distribute them to the press.

The Organizer is entitled to use the Company's name and logo for reference purposes and for the purpose of the event promotion.

The Organizer is entitled to reference the Company as a participant in the promotion of Campus Interview.

The Company is entitled to conduct surveys, as long as they are carried out in the booth provided to the Company at the Event (if applicable).

12. Usage of the Event Portal and Participant Data

All data made available to Company through the Event Portal is intended solely for the purpose of conducting interviews at the Event. The Company is not permitted to process, publish or disseminate any data from the Event Portal for any other purposes. Any attempts to damage, attack, or reverse engineer (including but not limited to development tools used for website development) the Event Portal are prohibited and will constitute a material breach of these T&C. The Company agrees that all personal data provided via the Event Portal is subject to the Privacy Policy published on the Event Portal. Interviews with Interviewees may not be scheduled by bypassing the Organizer prior to the Event. This includes sending of a link to any external website used for a direct application to the Company as well as the exchange of contact details via the Event Portal. Any exception requires a written agreement by the Organizer. The Organizer may read chat messages exchanged on the Event Platform to ensure this.

After the beginning of the Event, this restriction is lifted and the Company may schedule further interviews with the participants independently from the Organizer and exchange personal contact information as well as external links via the Event Platform.
